The Royal Photographic Society, Scottish Members Print Exhibition 2019 is now on display at The Gallery, Falkirk Town Hall, West Bridge Street, Falkirk. FK1 5RS. The exhibition runs until 29th August 2019 with the venue open most days and in the evening before entertainment events. If travelling please check opening times at 01324 - 506177.

The Royal Photographic Society is an educational charity founded in the United Kingdom in 1853 and today comprises over 12,000 photographers worldwide. Each year, R.P.S. members based in Scotland assemble a touring exhibition of 40 Prints representing their latest work. To encourage a variety of photographic styles and subjects, only 1 Print per photographer is allowed and this year the exhibition travels from Shetland to Dumfries including a month in the Gallery at Falkirk Town Hall.

A Still Life by Agnes Clark L.R.P.S. featured in last year's exhibition and another print by Agnes has again been selected in 2019. "Just Green" is also a Still Life and follows a theme she has developed as a member of Falkirk Camera Club. The exhibition features a wide variety of subjects, in B&W and Colour, from Still Life to Portraiture, Nature and Landscape.

157th Edinburgh International Exhibition of Photography 2019

Bonnie & Bella by Barrie Spence

Welcome to one of the most highly regarded international exhibitions in the UK, typically attracting around 3000 entries from all around the world. This salon has been in existence for over 150 years, and during that time has built a strong reputation. We are a print-only exhibition, increasingly rare in these times. Unlike many print exhibitions, we only accept what we can display, thus gaining an acceptance is a high achievement much sought after. All the prints are on display at the Society's premises during the Edinburgh Festivals for 4 weeks in August, maintaining the success of recent years. The Exhibition usually receives over 3000 visitors, many of whom come year after year to view it. All accepted images appear in the catalogue which has had a FIAP 4* rating since 2013.

Exhibition Secretary/Chairman: Edith Smith LRPS

Open 10am to 5pm daily until 25th August 2019

Edinburgh Photographic Centre
68 Great King Street, Edinburgh EH3 6QU

96TH SCOTTISH SALON 2019

The 96th Scottish Salon was held, 115 years on from the first Scottish Salon, held in 1904. We received a total of 8148 (5817 Projected Images and 2331 prints) from 903 authors, coming from 46 Countries. Again we had a very large entry from the UK some 54.5%, with 2397 entries coming from Scotland alone!

The Exhibition was held at Kirkcaldy Galleries, (previously known as Kirkcaldy Museum and Art Gallery) from Sat 18th May to Sun 9th June 2019, back in the same gallery where the Scottish Salon Exhibition has been held four times previously. The Opening and Awards Presentation was held on Sat 18th May 2019, and was opened by the Provost of Fife, Jim Leishman MBE, who also presented the awards.

The Exhibition was co-hosted by the Scottish Photographic Federation, and one of our founder Clubs, Kirkcaldy Photographic Society, who are celebrating their 120th Anniversary this year.

Kirkcaldy PS managed to get the Fife Free Press to cover the event with a half-page spread. Unfortunately there was a big misunderstanding by the Reporter, who thought Kirkcaldy PS had rallied to save the 115 year-old Scottish Salon! together with a few other things! Both KPS and SPF were keen to ensure the mistake was corrected, and a second report was issued with the correct info by the paper.

Fife photo exhibition captures world's best

The work of some of the world's most accomplished amateur photographers have been put on show in Fife as part of a prestigious Photographic exhibition.

The Scottish International Salon of Photography opened its 96th annual exhibition of winners at Kirkcaldy Galleries last week, the first time it's been hosted in the town since 1965.

The world renowned event, which was formed in 1904, annually attracts over 8000 entries from over 50 countries around the globe.

It marks a major coup for Kirkcaldy Photographic Society (KPS) which has been given the honour of hosting the event as the finale to its 120th anniversary celebrations.

What's more, the club is celebrating having scored their best ever showing at the event with an unprecedented 17 acceptances and a gold medal award for club member Wanda MacKie

"It's been the perfect finale to what has been a wonderful anniversary year and we are all delighted," said Cathy Davies, KPS syllabus secretary.

"The exhibition showcases the sort of talent that is out there, some of the images are simply breathtaking."

The Scottish International Salon of Photography winners exhibition continues at Kirkcaldy Galleries until June 9, free admission.
